An Attorney General Opinion is a written interpretation of existing law. The Attorney General writes opinions as part of his responsibility to act as legal counsel for the State of Texas. Opinions are written only at the request of certain state officials. The Texas Government Code indicates to whom the Attorney General may provide a legal opinion. He may not write legal opinions for private individuals or for any officials other than those specified by statute. Opinions

Opinion No. KP-0068

The Honorable Patrick M. Wilson

Ellis County and District Attorney

109 South Jackson

Waxahachie, Texas 75165

Re: Disposition of revenue collected pursuant to section 502.403 of the Transportation Code, authorizing an optional county fee for child safety (RQ-0052-KP)

S U M M A R Y

Section 502.403 of the Transportation Code allows a county that has imposed a fee under that section to retain a portion of the revenue from the fee for administrative costs as well as an amount proportional to the percentage of county residents who live in unincorporated areas of the county. Subsection (e) requires the county to send the remainder of the fee revenue to the municipalities in the county according to their population.
